For Your Trouble

IN every advertisement printed below there has been purposely omitted one word, which is necessary to complete the sentence from which it is lacking. These merchants want to see who can supply the most sensible, logical, powerful word in each of the instances. The Times will give a cash prize of Ten Dollars to the person who does the complete work in the most satisfactory manner. A committee of disinterested judges—advertising authorities—will make the decision. No answer received later than 6 P. M. Wednesday, June 17th, 1908.

Address your reply to the "Missing Word Editor," The Washington Times, City.

THE most stylish of millinery work in all its branches from trimming, remodeling, dyeing, and so forth to the decorating and originating of headgear for critically fashionable women is done reasonably and in a manner certain to give supreme satisfaction at

OLIVKRIM GENERAL TONIC

It is composed of pure virgin olive oil, combined with certain vegetable and fruit extracts of great medicinal value. It is put up in such form that it is pleasant to take, the extracts counteracting the effect of the oil. It is an unequalled remedy for general debility, indigestion, kidney, and bladder troubles, gall stones, appendicitis, bronchitis, and nervous affections. It is also an Antiseptic and Preventer of disease.

OLIVKRIM
Medicinal Hair Tonic.

A wonderful hair invigorator. Stops hair from falling out, removes dandruff, and keeps the hair soft and glossy.

What Officer E. A. Walker Says About Olivkrim Hair Invigorator:

The Pompelan Co., City: Washington, D. C., April 21 1908.
It gives me great pleasure to recommend your Olivkrim as a scalp header and dandruff remover. I suffered badly with dandruff and scalp itch and have used all kinds of preparations, but nothing has done me any good. I only used two jars of your Olivkrim, and it has done wonders for me. My hair stopped falling out, my dandruff disappeared, and my scalp is in first-class condition. Very truly yours,
EDWARD A. WALKER,
